  - In order to maintain the safety of our guests and employees, we will be instituting the following measures:
    - 1) All equipment & surfaces will be disinfected after every group
    - 2) We will limit our facility to one booking at a time (max 10 guests).
    - 3) We ask that you and your group arrive at approx. 10 minutes before your booking so we can keep our schedule in order.
- Lost in Fun – Hours are Monday through Saturday 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. and Sunday 11 a.m. to 8 p.m. We fogged and sanitized everything! Before coming in, we will take your temperatures, sanitize your shoes and give you hand sanitizer. If you don't have a mask, we do! We distanced our snack tables, and we have touchless water fountain and other items to keep you safe.
  - Per the new Directed Health Measure, masks MUST be worn by anyone age 5 and older AT ALL TIMES.
  - All shoes will be stored in a plastic bag (provided by Lost in Fun).
  - Our waiver must still be filled out. We recommend filling it out online before you arrive to prevent unnecessary contact → <https://bit.ly/2I2UQ5Y>
- Lux Center for the Arts – Hours are 12 p.m. to 6 p.m. Tuesday-Friday and 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday. A limited amount of people will be let in at a time.
  - Due to COVID-19, LUX Center for the Arts has cancelled many group classes and camps. However, we have redesigned our private art lessons for your safety and to allow parents and adult students to sign up online. Lessons in pottery wheel, clay hand building, painting, drawing/printmaking and art sampler are being offered in one-month sessions (4 weeks at 1 hour per week). Visit <https://www.luxcenter.org/> for more info.
- Mary Riepma Ross Media Arts Center – The Ross will be closed December 24-January 14 for UNL's winter break. We will reopen on Friday, January 15 with the films MLK/FBI and FAREWELL AMOR. We implemented a number of new policies to protect the health of our staff and patrons. Visit www.theross.org for showtimes, tickets and more information about our COVID safety measures.
- Mueller Planetarium – Closed until further notice due to COVID restrictions capping their occupancy to eight people. Visit their Facebook page for educational content.

- Museum of American Speed – Temporarily closed due to the Coronavirus, but you can check out their Facebook page for fun photos and virtual tours! There is good news though - the entire staff is back in the museum working daily on new displays to ensure the place is back and better than ever! They are in the process of discussing a reopening date and will have more details in the weeks to come - but they think they can help start your 2021 on a high note!
  - In an attempt to keep their staff, friends and visitors safe, they've made the tough decision to cancel the remaining Cars & Coffee events for 2020. They're looking forward to and planning their normal Cars & Coffee schedule for 2021!
  - Show Room Virtual Tour: <https://bit.ly/2y5u3AY>
  - Miller Room Virtual Tour: <https://bit.ly/2XBfZKc>
- National Museum of Roller Skating – Due to the increase in COVID-19 cases in Nebraska, the museum is temporarily closing its doors to the public. They will post reopening updates on their Facebook page.
  - Have you ever wondered how Inline Skating was invented, how Roller Hockey and Roller Derby came about, or the history of Speed Skating? Check out the answers to these questions and more by visiting <https://www.rollerskatingmuseum.org/exhibits>.
- Nebraska High School Sports Hall of Fame – Open Wed. and Fri. 1 p.m. to 4 p.m.
- Nebraska History Museum – In response to the city of Lincoln's COVID-19 Risk Dial moving into the severe category, History Nebraska announces their Lincoln locations will be temporarily closed to the public effective Saturday, November 7. These locations include the Nebraska History Museum and the History Nebraska Research and Reference Room. All research appointments and educational programs will be rescheduled. History Nebraska will continue to monitor the latest data and will reopen the Lincoln locations to the public when the city's risk dial drops below severe.
- Nebraska State Capitol – OPEN and giving tours at the top of every hour starting at 9 a.m. and ending at 4 p.m. (no tour at noon). They are still maintaining a six-foot distance and encouraging, but not requiring, face masks. The guides are wearing face shields for visitor protection while giving tours.
  - The interactive "Nebraska Virtual Capitol" website is a resource for students and visitors of all ages, both here in Nebraska and around the world. Young and old can discover more about Nebraska in the comfort of their own home. Learn about the history, arts and architecture of the building that serves as the heart of our state government and the Governor's mansion. <http://nebraskavirtualcapitol.org/>
